

Recommended Packing List

- A light-weight riding hat (recommended - it may be a condition of your insurance – please check)
- A wide-brimmed hat with strap or cap
- Light-weight riding shoes/jodhpur boots
- Sunglasses on a string plus spare, wrap-around sort if you wear contact lenses
- Riding gloves and bandana/buff to help protect from sun and dust
- Comfortable clothes to ride in including jodhpurs/long trousers and chaps, long sleeved cotton shirts, jersey or long sleeved fleece, sleeveless fleece with pockets.
- Lightweight waterproof/windbreaker jacket. Layering is key as temperatures fluctuate during day and night
- Warm clothes for evenings and to sleep in (campers) including a woolly hat (beanie) socks and gloves
- Underwear and socks (men might like to consider cycling shorts)
- Shorts, t-shirts, sarong, flipflops, comfortable clothes to wear around camp and showers
- Guests staying in lodges might want to dress more smartly than when camping
- Sunblock, lip salve (lots), towel, personal medication and toiletries, talc, Vaseline and “second skin” plasters to protect areas of skin that might chafe, antiseptic cream, eyedrops
- Head torch, camera spare batteries and memory card and binoculars
- Although we provide a warm down-filled bedroll, you may want to add your own fleece lining for extra warmth
- Lots of sachets of electrolytes/isotonic drinks to help rehydrate and sweets to suck between canters
- Soft luggage, well labeled and split in 2 bags if over 15 kgs
- A good sense of humour!

Please ensure your insurance covers you for emergency evacuation and supply us with the hotline contact details as all evacuations have to be coordinated by your insurance company. As this coordination process can be quite lengthy, there is an alternative local cover with direct access to evacuation. Called Aon Inbound Tourist Policy, it covers all travelling dates.
